

TUANKU JA'AFAR CONFERENCE AND WORKSHOP 2021 (TJC2021) ACCESS TO JUSTICE: SUBSTANTIVE & PROCEDURAL ISSUES VIRTUAL CONFERENCE

PROCEEDING

All papers will be evaluated based on the suitability of the scope and quality criteria as set out in TJC 2021 proceeding. All accepted papers will be published in ISBN Proceeding. Papers will be selected based in their reviewers' scores and appropriateness to the proceeding's theme. All extended versions will undergo reviews and must represent original unpublished research work. Selected papers will be published either in the Journal of Law and Society (Special Issue TJC2021) or as a book chapter in dedicated books on "Access to Justice" to be published by UKM Press. However, all decisions are subject to the respective publishers' requirements and editorial process.

INTRODUCTION

Tuanku Ja'afar Conference and Workshop 2021 (TJC2021) - Access to Justice: Substantive & Procedural Issues is the Fifth of the biennial series since 2007. This conference serves as a medium to bridge theories and practices.

TJC 2021 provides a collaborative environment for academics and experts to present findings on wide aspects of Law and Society. This platform grants academics from various themes to debate about current issues as well as finding solutions for the surfacing problems. TJC 2021 humbly invites prospective authors to submit original research manuscripts to TJC 2021.

VIDEO / LIVE PRESENTATION

Video presenters are the participants who contribute to the conference in-person with a paper presented by video presentation. Each presentation will last 10-15 minutes and will be presented in parallel sessions. You will be informed of your session reference and the time of your presentation before the conference.

SCOPE & SUB-THEME

Welcome, all potential delegates to the TJC 2021 Conference organised by Faculty of Law, Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia. The topics and scopes of interest for submission involve all research disciplines related (but not limited) to the themes and sub-themes as follows:
